Joel Musante is a Senior Analyst of the Research Group for C. K. Cooper & Company, a full-service investment bank focused on providing superior and insightful research coverage to its clients; innovative investment banking solutions supported by sales and trading services; and portfolio advisory and management services for private clients.

Mr. Musante joined C. K. Cooper & Company in July 2007. He has worked as an analyst covering the Exploration & Production sector for more than a decade and was ranked No. 1 in the 2011 Wall Street Journal "Best on the Street" analyst stock picking survey for the sector.

Mr. Musante began his career as an analyst in 1998 with W. R. Huff Asset Management performing due diligence on private equity deals and covering the high-yield E&P sector. In 2000, he joined the Exploration & Production team at Wasserstein Perella, Inc., which later became Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein Securities. Mr. Musante also held research analyst positions with Ferris, Baker Watts, Inc. and John S. Herold, Inc. Previously, Mr. Musante was a geologist and project manager with several geological and environmental engineering and consulting firms.

He received a Master of Business Administration degree with a concentration in Finance from the University of Rochester and a Bachelor of Science degree in Geology and Geophysics from the University of Connecticut. He was awarded the CFA designation and is a member of the CFA Institute and the New York Society of Security Analysts.
