Richard Kaye is Director of the Capital Markets Group of C. K. Cooper & Company, a full-service investment bank focused on providing superior and insightful research coverage to its clients; innovative investment banking solutions supported by sales and trading services; and portfolio advisory and management services for private clients.

Mr. Kaye joined C. K. Cooper & Company in May of 2011. He has more than twenty years of senior level executive experience in the Financial Service sector. First serving as a registered securities principal, Mr. Kaye was responsible for broker production and client acquisition. He later expanded his services to include investment banking and corporate finance, guiding early stage company clients with financing and public market listings.

In addition to his experience in the investment industry, Mr. Kaye has launched several consumer direct businesses and call center applications focused on mortgage banking, loss mitigation, and credit debt rehabilitation for consumers nationwide.

He holds a BA from the University of California, at Los Angeles, enjoys staying active with sports and travel and is a published author in the areas of consumer credit debt, the housing market and management of distressed mortgage assets.
