Tom J. Hsiao is an Associate of the Corporate Finance Group at C. K. Cooper & Company, a full-service investment bank focused on providing superior and insightful research coverage to its clients; innovative investment banking solutions supported by sales and trading services; and portfolio advisory and management services for private clients.

Mr. Hsiao joined C. K. Cooper & Company in May of 2011 to grow the firm's Corporate Finance Group. As an Associate Mr. Hsiao is to assist in facilitating the investment banking activities of the firm including relationship development, capital formation, valuation and fairness opinions, mergers and acquisitions, strategic partnering, and corporate advisory.

Prior to joining C. K. Cooper & Company, Mr. Hsiao worked in public accounting where he primarily focused on the planning, fieldwork, analysis, and reporting of certified IFRS and GAAP financial audit on U.S. corporations, and subsidiaries of multinational companies. Mr. Hsiao also performed tax planning, and assisted research in tax accounting issues in various industries for corporations, partnerships, trusts, and LLC/LLPs.

Mr. Hsiao received a B.S. degree in Accounting, from the California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, and holds an M.B.A. in Finance, from California State University, Fullerton. Mr. Hsiao is fluent in Mandarin Chinese. He is a Licensed FINRA Broker (Series 7), Investment Banking Representative (Series 79), and a Registered Investment Advisor (Series 66).
