Bilal Basrai is the Director of the Corporate Finance Group for C. K. Cooper & Company, a full-service investment bank focused on providing superior and insightful research coverage to its clients; innovative investment banking solutions supported by sales and trading services; and portfolio advisory and management services for private clients.

In this role, Mr. Basrai is responsible for the identification, cultivation and development of corporate finance clients and advising those clients on the various stages of each specific transaction. In particular, Mr. Basrai leverages his industry experience within the Healthcare Sector expanding C. K. Cooper & Company's service and product offering. In this capacity, Mr. Basrai is the team leader on corporate finance assignments with the firm's Healthcare clients, which could include appraisals, fairness opinions, merger and acquisition advice, licensing agreements and capital formation.

Mr. Basrai spent the majority of his career in New York City covering the Health Care Services sector with leading investment banks including Salomon Smith Barney, UBS Financial, and Lehman Brothers. Mr. Basrai also spent two years with the Stanford Financial Group prior to founding Lucite Advisors, LLC in 2006, a boutique investment advisory firm. Mr. Basrai has been involved in over $4.6 billion worth of transactions in the Healthcare Sector over his Wall Street career.

Mr. Basrai has also been a top-ranked analyst for the majority of the Healthcare stocks that he has covered during his days as an equity research analyst and has generated an excess industry return of 11.1%, according to analyst ranking agency Starmine Monitor. The agency has ranked Mr. Basrai as the seventh best stock-picker in the Healthcare Services & Providers Industry. Mr. Basrai has been quoted numerous times in The Wall Street Journal along with other major financial and news publications. Mr. Basrai holds series 7, 63, 86, and 87 securities licenses.

Mr. Basrai attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he graduated with a degree in Finance and Economics. Mr. Basrai also played on a tennis scholarship at the University of Illinois, and continues to be an avid tennis player and fan.
