Christopher F. Cave is the Director of Capital Markets for the Institutional Sales Group at C. K. Cooper & Company, a full-service investment bank focused on providing superior and insightful research coverage to its clients; innovative investment banking solutions supported by sales and trading services; and portfolio advisory and management services for private clients.

Mr. Cave joined C. K. Cooper & Company as part of the business combination of Mission Capital Financial Group in July of 2001. He brings an extensive background in servicing institutional investors to the firm. While Mr. Cave has a wide breadth of knowledge and experience in many aspects of the financial markets, his focus is assisting corporations meet the capital requirements necessary to execute their business plans and to accelerate growth.

In this role, Mr. Cave has worked to build and develop the Capital Markets Group at C. K. Cooper & Company, which concentrates on capital formation for micro to mid-cap companies in the energy space. During Mr. Cave's tenure, C. K. Cooper and Company has managed or co-managed over 30 transactions, raising in excess of $600MM. These transactions have included initial public offerings, follow-on offerings, registered direct transactions as well as private placements in public companies.

Mr. Cave attended the University of California at Irvine, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics with an emphasis on Corporate Finance. He has traveled extensively throughout Asia, Europe and the United States and has been a speaker at various seminars and conferences, related to investment strategies and market behavior.
