Jeffrey Cohen is a Senior Analyst of the Research Group for C. K. Cooper & Company, a full-service investment bank focused on providing superior and insightful research coverage to its clients; innovative investment banking solutions supported by sales and trading services; and portfolio advisory and management services for private clients.

Mr. Cohen joined C. K. Cooper & Company in September of 2009 to grow the firm's Healthcare Group. As Senior Analyst he will focus upon middle market companies within the healthcare sector.

For the past 10 years, Mr. Cohen has been involved in direct research, analysis and sales pertaining to the healthcare sector. He serves as an equity analyst focusing on the medical technology and medical device marketplace. He previously co-founded an investment research boutique specializing in fundamental healthcare research, and also worked as a research analyst at NY based broker/dealer, where he specialized in medical technology and devices. Mr. Cohen's focus has been upon middle market companies (market capitalizations between $50 million and $3 billion) with sector specialization within Cardiology, Vascular, Orthopedics and Diabetes.

Mr. Cohen received a B.S.E. in Systems Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania and an M.B.A. from the University of Miami. He also serves as an Adjunct Professor of Business & Management at Lynn University where he teaches Economics and Management. Mr. Cohen is a General Securities Principal who currently holds FINRA Series 7, 24, 63, 86, and 87 securities licenses.
