

C. K. COOPER & COMPANY INITIATES COVERAGE OF NABI BIOPHARMACEUTICALS

Irvine, Calif. – Jan 6, 2010 – C. K. Cooper & Company, an independent, full-service investment bank, headquartered in Irvine, Calif. announced today that it has initiated coverage of Nabi Biopharmaceuticals (NASDAQ: NABI).

"Nabi Biopharmaceuticals is a late-stage biopharmaceutical company currently conducting two large Phase III trials of NicVAX for a smoking cessation. The company currently has more than three dollars per share in cash, and has recently announced a worldwide commercialization agreement with GlaxoSmithKline, which is expected to close this quarter," said Jeffrey Cohen, Senior Research Analyst with C. K. Cooper & Company. "Nabi has undergone a significant transition over the past few years by selling non-core assets and focusing on two core products. We believe the risk/reward at current levels is extremely attractive, and that shares will appreciate significantly as investors become more aware of NicVAX's inherent value."
